

I had a case with the Immigration Judge but he denied the case. What can I do to continue fighting my case in Court?

Q: I had a case with the Immigration Judge but he denied the case. What can I do to continue fighting my case in Court?

A: You cannot continue to fight the case with the Immigration Court. However, you can file an appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals. You have 30 days to file an appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals.